Summer Grilled Boer Goat Kebabs

Boer goat meat is excellent for summer cooking because it is lean, flavourful, and works especially well with grilling, citrus, herbs, and smoky spices. A good warm-weather option is a Mediterranean-style grilled goat with lemon, garlic, and fresh herbs.

Ingredients

- 2 lbs Boer goat meat (leg, shoulder, or loin), cut into cubes.
- 3 tbsp olive oil
- Juice of 2 lemons
- 5 garlic cloves, minced.
- 1 tbsp fresh rosemary, chopped.
- 1 tbsp fresh oregano
- 1 tsp smoked paprika
- 1 tsp ground cumin
- 1 tsp salt
- 1/2 tsp black pepper
- 1 red onion, cut into chunks.
- 1 zucchini sliced thick.
- Cherry tomatoes
- Skewers

Marinade

Combine:

- olive oil
- lemon juice
- garlic
- rosemary

- oregano
- paprika
- cumin
- salt and pepper.

Add the goat meat and marinate at least 4 hours (overnight is best).

Cooking

1. Thread meat and vegetables onto skewers.
2. Grill over medium-high heat about 10–12 minutes total, turning occasionally.
3. Cook until lightly charred outside and tender inside.

Because goat is lean, avoid overcooking.

Serve With

- Tzatziki
- Couscous or grilled flatbread
- Watermelon salad
- Mint yogurt sauce
- Chilled cucumber salad

The Show Ring-What to Wear

Practical and Professional, A tidy and appropriate appearance reflects pride in your animals and respect for the Judge and the Show.

Here is what we recommend:

- Clean white coat, these can be bought online, or at stands at the show.
- Shirt with a collar (Polo shirt is acceptable)
- You are welcome to wear a tie, but it is not essential
- Black jeans are ideal (they really help show your goats to their best!)
- Clean denim jeans are acceptable – but no rips or cuts, please
- Sturdy, clean footwear – no trainers or open shoes
- No shorts
- Be prepared for all types of weather.
- A neat and well-groomed appearance always goes a long way!

Ring Etiquette and Show Day Tips

- Arrive in good time – allow plenty of time to get ready for your class, goats always surprise you on the morning with a fresh stain or two.
- Politeness and respect toward fellow exhibitors and show staff is essential.
- In the show ring, even if you know the Judge personally, please address them formally as ‘Sir’ or ‘Madam’ – it helps maintain the professionalism of the event.
  - Listen carefully and follow instructions from the Judge and Steward.
  - Do not forget to bring your CAE Certificates and Movement Forms – these must be handed to the BBGS Steward.

Finally... Enjoy the Experience! We hope you enjoy every moment of the show. Whether it is your first time, or you are a seasoned exhibitor, your participation helps make this event special.

See you in the ring – and best of luck.

Our sincere thanks go to our judges, Mr Philip Hall (Gloucestershire), and Ms Cathy Whale (Yorkshire), together with our fantastic stewards, Nick and Carmen Brandon, whose dedication and support helped make the day such a success.

All our wonderful County Shows rely on the generosity of these individuals, who give up their valuable time to support our events and exhibitors.

A huge thank you also to our BBGS members for exhibiting their superb animals. The standard of stock on display was outstanding, competition was fierce, and everyone enjoyed a thoroughly enjoyable day.

Finally, our grateful thanks to Staffordshire County Show for hosting a record-breaking show. Their support and hard work contributed to a truly memorable event.

Best regards
